POOR MT. OLIVET.

FIERCE FLAMES IN OUR NEIGHBORING VILLAGE.

At Half Past Two This Morning It Started, but When It Will End Is Different—Over One-fourth of the Town Destroyed.

News reached the city this morning that Mt. Olivet was burning very fast, that a blaze had got a big start and was beyond control.

Poor Mt. Olivet! It was a very pretty little country village and to think that just in the budding of the new year it should be rendered to ashes!

The telephone connections between Maysville and that place has been cut off from some cause and THE LEDGER was unable to get as many particulars of the fire as it would like.

From what could be learned the facts are as follows:

About half past 2 o'clock this morning a small blaze was noticed in the rear of Sparks's Hotel. It was apparently small and insignificant and it was not a great excitement that was caused by the alarm.

But pretty soon the fire began to spread to the new house of P. W. Wheeler and then to Liville's store, part of E. M. Newman's store, part of the new M. E. Church and several other houses in the immediate vicinity.

The wind was high, the night was severely cold, and while the houses and buildings burned like paper, the citizens were almost rendered helpless by the exceedingly cold night.

Water would freeze on the buildings only to be melted away by the fierce flames that swept slowly about.

At 8 o'clock this morning about one-fourth of the town in value was reduced to ashes, and the fire had not by any means become under control.

As stated the telephone service between this city and Mt. Olivet has been broken down and all the news that could be gleaned came via Sardinia.

Later—Telephone connections have been made and the following particulars were learned:

Buildings destroyed—Sparks's Hotel, Reveal Slater's, millinery store, Old Bank building, P. W. Wheeler's store, French & Chandler's store, J. R. Liville's place and the old M. E. Church was badly damaged.

Total loss about $45,000. Insurance only $23,000. All new buildings same territory having been destroyed by fire in 1890. Considerable damage was caused in removing goods.

Fire at 9:30 this morning almost out. Fully under control.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

St. Paul's, the largest Episcopal Church in Louisville, was destroyed by fire. Loss $100,000.

Mrs. McCarthy Dead.

Mrs. Kate McCarthy, wife of M. J. McCarthy, one of the proprietors of The Evening Bulletin, whose serious illness has been noticed in THE LEDGER, died at an early hour this morning.

Deceased was a daughter of John Kane. She was a woman of lovely character and numbered friends by scores. Besides a devoted husband, she leaves four children to mourn their loss.

THE LEDGER tenders its condolence to its bereaved confere, and its sympathies to the afflicted family and friends.

THE FACTS PRESENTED

In a Clean and Concise Manner by a Disinterested Party.

Yesterday's mail brought a letter to this city from a prominent law firm in Kansas City, Mo., to friends in this city which shows pretty plainly how Bishop McManara and his wife are situated in that city.

The letter is a lengthy one, and the parties with THE LEDGER takes pleasure in publishing only shows the condition of things.

Kansas City is only one of many cities in this enlightened country whose officers are Catholics and whose actions and works are certainly to the contrary of those of American citizenship and feeling.

When we can rid ourselves of such a set of officers, when we can get justice, whether Protestants or Catholics, then will the A. P. A. have accomplished its purpose, and its end will be welcomed by every American citizen and loyal man to the Stars and Stripes with a feeling of gladness and prosperity.

Here is the letter. It is not written from a prejudiced person, but one who only writes from a practical standpoint, and not from one of personal feeling.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan 25, 1894. Gentlemen: Bishop J. V. McManara is charged here with selling obscene literature, ("Confessions of a Nun") and of slandering certain Priests and Nuns of this city, flourishing a dangerous and deadly weapon, inciting to riot and various other crimes and misdemeanors against the peace and dignity of the state of Missouri. He and his wife barely escaped death by a mob here last week. He is now in the County Jail, and we are afraid to bail him out for the reason that the bloodthirsty mob here are anxious to kill him.

The whole legal machinery in this city is in the hands of the Catholics; that is the Justices of the Peace, Constables, Marshal and Sheriff are of this class. Every possible effort will be made to convict. They are desperate and wholly unscrupulous.

OUR CHURCH COLUMN.

A FEW OPINIONS EXPRESSED BY "THE TRAMP" AND A FEW BY THE MINISTERS—SINGING AT REVEL SERVICES.

There has been some excellent music furnished at Mitchell's Chapel during the past week at the revel services.

"The Tramp" has attended the church several nights with a view of noticing the improvement in singing and what difference a earnest made with the singing of the congregation.

Professor Fogz is certainly a wonderful cornetist, and on Thursday evening he rendered a most beautiful solo entitled, "Mother Comes to Me in Dreams."

It was played with deep expression, and made a most marked impression on the listeners.

In singing, when Professor Fogz accompanies with his cornet, the congregation all join in and are not afraid to open their mouths, but just as soon as the cornet stops the congregation began to sing.

There is a passage of Scripture which starts off something like this: "Let your light shine," etc.

Certainly this passage was meant for singing. Sing out the praises of God, and if that is all you can do, do that. If you have a voice let everybody know it. The Lord has given us voices to use in singing His praises, and those who can and do not are only breaking one of the commandments of God.

The past week has been an unusually quiet one in the churches, and it is a safe assertion that there is not a town of the "week" of Maysville in this "neck of the woods," with the churches we have here, but what are holding more protracted meetings than what they are in this city.

Only two meetings of importance have been held the past week, and they have been at the Christian Church and Mitchell's Chapel, M. E. Church, in the Sixth Ward. Good crowds have been present almost every evening, and the attention paid to the Ministers is something wonderful.

And why is this? Easy enough to answer. The churchgoers must be revived. They are accustomed to it, and a winter that would go by without a protracted meeting would surpass a summer without sunshine. Too long has it been a custom to stop now.

On the long dreary evenings of the winter months, while society is doing its greatest work, while the saloons offer an usual inducement for the young men, the church of God should not be idle by any means, but up and going.

Let the church be considered opposition to the dancing schools, to the saloons and gambling dens, and good will be done.

Don't let your eyes burn unless you kindle it. After you expect to get good work out of your church members unless you revive in them the spirit of God and the Holy Ghost.

In the last few weeks 157 persons have united with the churches at Williamsburg.

The Baptist Church at Winchester has extended a call to Rev. Joseph Felix of Lynchburg, Va.

The Baptist Church at Augusta has employed Rev. Burgess to preach there two Sundays in each month, instead of one as heretofore.

The handsome new Methodist Church at Danville was formally opened last Sunday. The attendance at both the morning and evening services tested the capacity of the house.

The services of the first annual communion of the Flemingsburg Presbyterian Church for the present year will be held to-morrow at 11 a. m. Preparatory service to-day at 11 a. m.

The singing at Mitchell's Chapel was greatly strengthened by the choir from the Second street M. E. Church, this week. Those present from that choir were Misses Sally Burrows, Lizzie Sadler, Fannie Bramel and Bertha Danilton.

The Second Quarterly Meeting of the Aberdeen Circuit will be held there to-day and to-morrow. Quarterly conference at 2 p. m. to-day. Preaching to-night by Rev. J. W. Mason, Presiding Elder, and at 10 a. m. Sunday, following by the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Preaching to-morrow evening.

Rev. William L. McEvan of the Webster Grove, Mo., Presbyterian Church, who is teaching a salary of $600 a year, declined two calls, one at a salary of $4,500 a year and the other at $5,000 a year, both unanimously tendered by wealthy city churches. He says that his work at Webster Grove needs him more than he needs the money.

The usual services will be continued to-morrow at the M. E. Church, South, by Rev. T. W. Watts, Pastor. Subject of the morning discourse, "Study of the Scriptures." Evening, "The Parable of the Prodigal Son."

The revival at Mitchell's Chapel is increasing in interest. One conversion last night. Convicting power was manifested in the audience. Let every Christian in Maysville pray that God may save East Maysville. Don't forget children's services at 3 p. m.

Just one week from to-morrow the Union Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of this city will be held at the Presbyterian Church. The program has been completely arranged and the meeting is promised to be a most enjoyable one.

The usual services will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church morning and evening. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. by the Pastor, Rev. W. O. Cochran. Sunday school at 9 a. m. and Christian Endeavor meets at 6 p. m. All invited to these services and made welcome.

The meeting at the M. E. Church at Aberdeen will still continue. The membership is awakened to a full sense of duty, and much good is being done, every evening adding to the success. There have been several additions already. Rev. Williamson deserves much praise for his untiring interest of the church and people. All should take an interest in this laudable work, and assist the Pastor to the extent of their ability.

The cold snap causes many people to hunt warm cheerful places in which to pass time for which there is no set occasion. Sunday afternoon becomes to most boys and men dull, weary and monotonous. Now, there is no fault with the day; it lies with the grumbler. Come to the Y. M. C. A. Room and you will quickly see how pleasantly and profitably you can pass the time. Lots of good reading matter, warm room and comfortable seats, and above all, you are cordially welcomed. At 3 o'clock the Men's Meeting is held and you can help along and enjoy friendly exchange of thought. Subject, "Parable of the Sower." Come out.

If the Duval Club of Jacksonville can have a fight—why can't we have one? That was a question that presented itself to a number of the sporting inclined men of the city and they arranged a fight take place Sunday morning, February 19th, at 10 o'clock on the sand bar just below Aberdeen.

And they have assurances from Yeas-Brook, Mayor of the Ohio river, that he will not release any of his Siberian blood hounds on that day, or order out the militia, or even allow his photograph to be published in the daily papers.

It was certainly a very evident fact that Governor Mitchell as a last resort to stop the Corbett-Mitchell fight published his picture.

Even Nature wept and shed tears when that awful picture came out, and the first cold weather of the season was brought on.

But wait until you hear about the fight that we are going to have.

Rosecrans Gussani is 5 feet 2 1/2 inches in height, weighs 160 pounds, and is a very good fighter.

Henry Dinger, better known as "Foot," stands 6 feet and 1 1/2 inch in his stocking feet and balances the scales at 193 pounds.

Well these are the two men that will come together, Mark-Hall-Goodrich rules to govern, for a purse of $500 in street improvement bonds.

Tickets are now selling for the fight at 50 cents each and everything will be done to make the fight a success.

Both men have good records as local pugilists and the fight will only promise to be one with even honors, but will be all probability be a hard fought one.

A Nest of New York Counter-fellers Bagged.

The "Mint" Had a Capacity for Turning Out $500 Weekly.

Trades People All Over New York City and Brooklyn Were Flooded With the Spurious Coins for Some Time. The Detective Made a Bitter Hunt.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The most important arrests of counterfeiters in the district of New York in recent years were made late Friday afternoon. The counterfeiters' mint had a capacity for turning out $500 worth of silver coins of denomination weekly.

For several weeks the secret service men have been on the track of passers of spurious dimes, quarters, half dollars and dollars.

Trades people all over the city and in Brooklyn were flooded with the coin, and for a time the detectives could not even get a clue. Last week, on complaint of the collector of the city, Angela Clement and a child were arrested. On the basis of the women's quantity of bad silver quarters was found.

Following this arrest on Tuesday of this week two Italian women and a man were arrested on Hudson street. They had just come from the corner of the street and had passed many dollars worth of dimes, quarters and half dollars. This latter hour proved to be the greatest importance, through information gained from them the workshop of the gang was located at 225 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street. A raid of the corner street was not made immediately, as James Scanlon, chief of the detective service for the district of New York, was of the opinion that the corner street money was still at large. So it came about that $35, which is a large tenement house, was shadowed for a certain Italian, whose description the officers had.

Late Thursday afternoon, however, Scanlon and two of his assistants, Callahan and Esquire, went to the corner of One Hundred and Thirtieth street, where they were looking for. As he was about to pass the corner street, he stepped on the man and asked him where he was going and who he was.

The fellow said he was going to 225 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, and that his name was Solomon Andrea.

Scanlon then handed the fellow over to Callahan, who took him to the One Hundred and fourth street police station. Scanlon and Esquire then proceeded directly to the tenement. Proceeding to the corner street, they knocked for admittance. It was denied them, and the door was forced. Within the detectives were confronted by an Italian gang.

Before taking away the prisoner a search of five rooms which made up the flat revealed first of all another Italian woman and six children. The woman arrested was found in the room. The United States Commissioner Shields Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock they were arraigned and afterward held in $5,000 bail each. Their examination on Monday next at 10 o'clock.

BAILEY'S BILL FAVORABLY REPORTED TO THE HOUSE.

THE HOUSE FAVORABLY TIMED TO AVOID ADVERSE LEGISLATION.

IT IS THOUGHT, HOWEVER, THAT THE HOUSE WILL PASS THE PROPOSED SALE OF $50,000,000 WORTH OF 5 PER CENT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Secretary Carlisle's bill was favorably reported to avoid danger of adverse legislation by congress. That congressional criticism was expected to be admitted by the secretary of the treasury, and the action of the judiciary committee of the house in favorably reporting the Bailey resolution Friday, shows how decided is democratic sentiment against bonds.

It is not expected that Mr. Bailey's resolution will be passed. The money derived from the sale of bonds issued under the act of 1875, can be used for no other purpose than the redemption of United States notes, will seriously affect the proposed sale of $50,000,000 worth of 5 per cent. It is worthy of notes, however, that in anticipation of such action as that taken Friday, which shows that the judiciary committee was not influenced by the arguments of Mr. Carlisle, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, to New York to drum up bids for the bond sale.

What Mr. Carlisle can do is not known. He is not expected to present the present one it was thought better to send a New York man to deal with the New York bankers and syndicates of the New York City and County, and secretaries, who are much better equipped in every respect than Mr. Carlisle.

Mr. Bailey's resolution can not be considered until after the tariff bill has been disposed of by the house. When it is called up the whole question of the condition of the country, necessity for immediate authorization by congress for a bond issue, and the coinage of the silver dollar will be before the house. The success or failure of the $50,000,000 bond issue will have been determined.

From Mr. Carlisle's statement to the judiciary committee Thursday, it is certain that the action Friday will not differ him, in any particular, in the course which he has marked out for himself. As he explained, he felt, through the failure of congress to act for the relief of the treasury, he was justified in exercising his right under the law to obtain the money, and next, to dispose of the proceeds of the bond sale in such a manner as seemed wise to him, whether in meeting the current expenses of the government, or in other ways.

The democratic opposition to the policy of the administration is not so much a question of the growing breach between the executive and legislative branches of the government.
